ISCU AGED.

Do Women Will Be on Leading This.

A lady, who for years and suffered from nerve weakness, headache, backache, and who complained of feeling tired all the time, hearted at repeated failures to find relief, exclaimed:

"I am discov-

ing that I must get out of my life feeling wretched and miserable."

A sympathizing friend encouraged her to try Dr. Green's

TO SATISFY A JUDGMENT.

A Passenger Train Setback by the Sheriff.

DURHAM, Minn., Nov. 4. Sheriff Harvey, yesterday, seized a passenger train consisting of engine, two baggage cars, six coaches and buffet car, on Eastern

Minnesota, to satisfy the judgment for $15,000, in favor of J. A. Moran, who was given verdict for that amount by the courts, for personal injuries received, while in the employ of the company, the company covered coaches and engine from the Terminal Co., and thus got the passengers to St. Paul.

FIGHT IN THE STREET.

The Eastport Men Got Away from an Officer

EASTPORT, Nov. 4. Yesterday Special Inquirer Constable Bucknam, searched Rocky Tavern, kept by Patterson & Hunt, and found one bottle, said by some to contain water. However to-day he attempted to arrest Patterson and Hunt on Water street. They resisted and handled Bucknam without gloves. He called for assistance but the crowd didn't appear anxious to help enforce the law of the State, and Patterson and Hunt got away and will probably skip to the Canadian side.

GENERAL PROSPERITY.

Now Being Experienced Under Operations of McKinley Bill.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says even in the week before a Presidential election, business has continued very active, indeed the volume is far beyond any precedent for a similar period. Yet the coming election has plainly diminished business in two ways - multitudes have been diverted from trade to political activity.

Many more have chosen to postpone transactions until political uncertainty has been removed. The fact that even under such circumstances trade has been so vigorous volume shows how powerful is the impetus toward activity and expansion. People are clearly buying more goods now than ever before and in some branches manufacturers are realizing a slight advance in prices.

NO WONDER HE'S MISSING.
A cripple with $100,000 in His Possession

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. W. B. Brunton to-day asked the police to search the city for Charles Gill, of South Africa, who mysteriously vanished from a cheap hotel on West street. Gill is a wealthy mine owner and is said to have had $100,000 in his possession. He is 38 years old and a cripple.

BUSINESS FAILURES.

Record for the Past Week.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. Business failures occurring throughout the country during the past seven days as reported to R. G. Dun and E. Russell, number for the United States 207; for Canada 31; total 238 as compared with 187 last week and 201 for corresponding week last year, 43 of which were in Canada.

Bradstreet's reports 221 business failures throughout the United States this week against 238 in the fourth week of October of 1904; and 81 business failures in Canada against 43 in the like week a year ago.

FALSE REGISTRATION

Numerous Indictments in Jersey City.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 4. The Hudson county grand jury this afternoon indicted 54 colored and 100 white men for false registration.

Arrests were at once issued by Judge Lippincott and placed in the hands of the Jersey City police and court constables and service began at once.

THANKSGIVING DAY

President Appoints Thursday, November 24.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24. The President this afternoon issued a proclamation setting apart Thursday, the 24th inst., as a day of national thanksgiving.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

Should take Notice by this Warning.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 4. Governor Flower this afternoon issued a proclamation which says: "On Tuesday, November 7, the people of the United States will exercise their privilege of American citizenship and determine by their votes what political principles shall, during the time fixed by the constitution control the administration and legislation of the federal government.

It is essential to our liberties and to the fair name of our country that this expression of popular judgment should be absolutely untrammelled and honest. When control of office is secured by intimidation or corruption and the governmental policy is determined by bribery of voters, elections become a farce and representative government a sham.

An Honest Ballot

and fair count are of more importance to the American people than any political issues raised in the campaign by any party. I call upon the people of this State to see that the election in this Commonwealth shall be an honest one. Recent enactments by the Legislature have imposed almost every possible safeguard around the sanctity of the ballot. Honor of our State and our love for American institutions, demand that every citizen should obey these laws and look to their enforcement.

The Governor quotes sections of the State constitution bearing upon the right to challenge every person suspected of bribing voters, or of being bribed and offering to vote, and says that the right of challenge, exercised intelligently and fearlessly, supplies to every citizen a weapon of

and will greatly assist in frightening dishonest voters from the polls. In addition, I call upon all election officers, all district attorneys, all sheriffs and peace officers to see that the laws of the State are rigidly enforced to the end that good order may prevail at the polls and the right of honest franchise be sacredly regarded.

I give warning that all failures on the part of such public officers to discharge their full duty in complete enforcement of the laws shall be considered sufficient cause for their removal.

FRAUD ALLEGED.

Concerns of New York Grocery Firm.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. Judge Bookstaver signed an order to-day by which it appears that he thinks $80,000 of the assets of C. Burkhalter & Co. were fraudulently disposed of. Twenty-four persons concerned have been ordered to appear before a referee for examination.

HOBBS TAMMANY.

Wants to Run Anything and Everything.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. The executive committee of Tammany Hall sent a letter to John I. Davenport this afternoon saying:

"We understand that it is contemplated by you to make certain arrests of electors of this county for alleged illegal registration. If such arrests of illegal registration has been committed by any person, it was done between the 11th and 24th of October. The lists of each day's registration are at once placed in your hands, and

Instructions to Outside Regulators
What Shall be Done.

The Democrats Will be Obligated to Recognize the Law.

United States District Attorney Mitchell's Letter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. United States District Attorney Mitchell sent the following letter to-day to United States Marshals Jacobus and United States Supervisor of Elections John I. Davenport:

Gentlemen, - W. F. Sheehan, chairman of the Democratic campaign committee has called upon the Democrats to enforce the law. Mr. Sheehan declares - "first," that no federal supervisor can go beyond the guard-rail. This is not the law. The law directs the United States supervisors to take such position, whether before or behind the ballot boxes, as will in their judgment best enable them to perform their duties.

Mr. Sheehan further declares "second, United States Marshals have no more right than any other voter to be within the guard rail of the balloting place." This is not the law in any case in which the supervisors of the election may call a United Marshal to support and protect them behind the guard rail, or in any other position, whether before or behind the Ballot Boxes, which they may in their judgment have taken and be occupying.

He then quotes sections touching on the point. Will you kindly instruct each supervisor of election and deputy marshal, that whenever there is any conflict between the law of the United States and the law of the State the law of the United States is paramount. You will please inform all such supervisors of election and deputy marshals that the United States intends to carry out the provisions of section 2,018 of the United States revised statutes and to see that every supervisor of election and every deputy marshal, if requested to support him by such supervisor of election, shall be allowed to take any position behind the guard rail he sees fit on election day, and that any person interfering with them in any way while they are in performance of their duty behind the guard rail in any polling place on election day, can at once be arrested without process, under section 5522 of the revised statutes.

FOUND NO GUILTY.

Ex-Premier Mercer Escapes Very Easy.

QUEBEC, Nov. 4. "Not guilty" is the verdict of the jury in the Mercer case.

The jury in the famous trial of Mercer and Paquet charged with defrauding the provincial government out of large sums of money, rendered the verdict after being out but a short time. The verdict was made the occasion of great rejoicing by the ex-premier's friends, Mercer being carried on the shoulders of some of his sympathizers to the residence of his counsel where he delivered an address.

WELCOMED CLEVELAND

At the Risk at Jersey City, N. J.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 4. Jersey City Democrats gave a hearty welcome to ex-President Cleveland this evening in the Oakland avenue rink and cheered for five minutes when Cleveland and United States Senator McPherson entered the hall. Mr. Cleveland spoke.

Senator McPherson followed. Chairman Harrity also spoke, predicting the success of the national ticket. After the meeting Mr. Cleveland was entertained by the Democratic Social Club.

Confidence Signs at the Republican National Headquarters.

The Democratic Leaders Refuse to Estimate.

Sheehan, who First Said 40,000 for Cleveland in State, Silent.

[Special to Philadelphia Press.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. There was great activity at the various political headquarters to-day, and the callers from this State at least were numerous. Both National Committees have agents scattered over the country making independent investigations. Chairman Carter has had 400 men in the Western States engaged in feeling the popular pulse in order that he might have information aside from that furnished by local political organizations. The Democratic Committee has had a large number of men similarly employed. It is on the report of these agents, generally politicians from other States, as well as on the reports of the State Committees, that the national organizations decide as to the outlook and as to whether any help is needed. These reports and those of the visitors and speakers put the committees in possession of the information on which they act.

There is no denying that the reports in possession of the Republican committee are of a nature to impart an air of confidence that does not exist at Democratic headquarters. The Democrats begin to give indications of being "rattled." For instance Chairman Dickinson referred an inquirer to-day as to the probable majority in New York to Chairman Sheehan, of the State campaign committee, and this gentleman, who only yesterday said the Democrats would carry New York by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority, to-day declined to give any estimates. "Boss" Croker, of Tammany Hall, made a similar reply in regard to New York city.

Thinking that this might be due to the fact that they were talking to the correspondent of a Republican paper, I scanned the Democratic evening papers to see if they had met with similar treatment. The Evening Post, the leading Cleveland organ, had this to say under its report of Democratic headquarters: "Chairman Sheehan declined to give any Democratic figures; he said that anyone who gave out figures at this time was a fool." And the Evening World gives an interview with Boss Croker, claiming the State but giving no figures. The World itself states: "Mr. Croker does not state the figures at which New York will go for Cleveland."

Any person who has read the big claims put forth within a few days by these same men, but which were moderated on Monday and now abandoned altogether, will see the great significance of the change of base.

Showing How the Wind Blew.

But there are other features of little significance. Mr. Cleveland's speech last night has been the talk of the town to-day. Everybody agreed that Mr. Cleveland was scared, or rather, to use a common word, "rattled," and that he made a bad exhibition of himself. His confession that he "was not absolutely sure of success," and his vulgar denunciation of his opponents as "distributors of impudent lies," and his gabbling about "boodle," and the Republican indications of success being based on "their ability to purchase votes," and on "deals," were words unworthy of any honest man in his sober senses. They have been generally commented upon to-day as indicative of Democratic defeat.

Still another significant utterance was that of Senator Hill in his speech at Schenectady. Among other things he said that Democrats should not place too much reliance in last year's vote for Governor, adding, "we must recollect that last year the total vote cast was 157,256 votes less than that polled in 1888. The Republicans seem to possess a reserved strength in Presidential elections, which they exhibit at no other election, and which requires our greatest efforts to overcome." These things look very much like explaining defeat in advance.

Depending Upon Weaver Help.

Still another significant event was the publication of the letter of Governor Boyd, of Nebraska, declaring that "the Democratic National Committee and the leading men of the party with whom he consulted in the East, advised the withdrawal of the Democratic electoral ticket in Nebraska and the support of the Weaver ticket." When Governor Boyd was recently in this city he held a long consultation with Mr. Cleveland and it was announced by himself in a public interview. The result is seen in the advice to the Democrats of Nebraska to support the ticket of the party which favors the free coinage of silver and other wild schemes.

Carter Very Confident.

Chairman Carter, coming from that section of the country, aided by all the means of information at his disposal, ought to be qualified to speak on this matter. He said to-night: "I have no fears of the West. My information from there shows that the support of the Weaver ticket by the Democrats does not threaten our success. There are many Democrats like John R. Dixon, of Colorado, who was a delegate at the Chicago convention, who will support Harrison in preference to Weaver."

"He says that the success of the Weaver ticket would be a blight on the State and that he will not be a party to such a scheme." Where there is one Democrat who speaks out in that way, there are a hundred who will act without speaking. No, I have no fear of the West nor of the East. Harrison will be elected and that by a large majority. We shall carry New York and Indiana, and all the States, with perhaps the exception of Nevada, that we carried in 1888, and, in addition, Connecticut, while our chances are extremely good for carrying several others. We would be absolutely certain of other States if a fair election were guaranteed."

Will Win by Brand if Possible.

While Mr. Cleveland is raising an outcry about "boodle" there are evidences that he Democrats mean to win if possible by fraud in this State. The State Committee has the names of nearly 3000 men who registered on the last days of registration from places at which they did not reside on October 25 and 26. These names are to be published. Chairman Wilson, of the Brooklyn City Committee, said to-night that they had from 1000 to 2000 cases of colonization and illegal registration under surveillance in Kings County.

They "Swapped" Names.

In the Municipal Court yesterday a "swapping" case was tried before Judge Brett. Jerry T. Carrow was the complainant and Edward Crocker, the defendant. Both belong in Bangor. According to the evidence they "swapped" names not long ago and Carrow received a mark valued at $50. At the time both were well satisfied with their bargain and thought they had made a good trade. Soon, however, Crocker concluded that he and not made such a fine bargain after all and he wanted his mare back, so he proceeded to go to Carrow's barn while Carrow was absent and take the animal. Carrow naturally objected to such action so he made complaint against Crocker. The result of the hearing was that the case was not proved.

Supper Concert.

The Virginia and Tangle Colored Glee Club will give a supper concert at the Northampton next Sunday evening.

For the Campaign.

This being a Presidential year, the campaign opens early. There will be sent to any address from now till the last of November, for fifty months when paid in advance.

The Ever Ready Circle of King's ters will meet with Mrs. S. A. M. this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The High School foot ball eleven play the Maine State College sophomores at Orono next Wednesday afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Association of Charities will be held this afternoon in the Common Council room at half past 6 o'clock.

The rain and snow have left the roads in bad shape and traveling over at present is not of the most pleasant description.

The funeral of Mrs. Tampion will be held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock at the residence of her son, No. 13 berland street.

The British steamer Southward, Walker, arrived in this port yesterday afternoon to be loaded with specie for Grenock, Scotland.

The Bangor Elks held a social last evening at their rooms on Main street. Invitations were issued to a number are not members of the order.

The little folks will be interested in the fine doll tables at the Crusade Fair, dolls of all descriptions and sizes for sale and at prices to suit all pairs.

The Young Ladies' Mission Bazaar meet in the vestry of the First church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members requested to be present, as it is the final meeting.

The members of the police force gathered at the station early last evening to listen to a few remarks from the Commissioners, who addressed them on some points in regard to personal appearance, behavior, etc.

Miss Pearson will give her third evening lecture on cooking on Monday Wednesday and Friday of next week. There will doubtless be a large attendance. The lecture Thursday in the First vestry was excellent.

The first floor of the brick block built by Dr. W. U. Coe at the corner Hammond and Columbia streets is laid. It will be boarded in for the and the block will be erected the spring. It will be a handsome and conveniently arranged building.

The steamer Lawiston which left Wednesday, was obliged to stay in land until 1 A. M. Thursday owing to a storm. She experienced a very passage but arrived at Boston at 10.30. She left for Bangor at 10.30 and here last evening at 7.30 o'clock.

A horse attached to Marston & Co delivery wagon became frightened yesterday on Valley avenue, near Morse's and ran away. The wagon was turned and dragged some distance fortunately very slight damage was done. The animal was soon stopped without injury resulting in any way.

Postmaster A. B. Farnham, who has been making an official tour of inspection of the different post offices in Pen county will complete the work to-day. He has taken considerable time to visit office and Col Farnham has traveled miles by carriage as well as by rail during the past few weeks to accomplish his object.

A total eclipse of the moon occurred yesterday, but it was not visible in the United States. The beginning was in the northwestern portions of America, the Pacific ocean, Asia and the northern portions of Europe. The end was in the northwest Pacific ocean, the Atlantic, eastern portions of Africa, Europe, except England and Spain last named section.

At Frawley's pharmacy yesterday T. Allen had a flower opening and a beautiful display of choice flowers from well known greenhouses on Court street was made. Many different kinds of flowers and plants were shown and the arrangement exhibited great taste. This time on fresh cut flowers can be obtained at Frawley's which will be down town agency.

A number of sportsmen passed through the city yesterday, some being bound for the hunting regions and others being on their return. The faces of the sportsmen were a look of expectancy and the latter a well satisfied expression. Hunters are securing a sufficient quantity of game and already there have been sportsmen in the Maine woods this before at this time of the year.

A lady sends $25, in memoriam of her daughter, to help pay the debt on the M. C. A. building. The lady when was very much interested in the work of the association. We understand she has intimated they are going to do something to help wipe out the debt. A lending to do anything should do once, that there may be no question about it at the annual meeting to be Tuesday evening.

The steamer Welcome met with accident yesterday morning while en route from her route during the day. She left as usual the night before on a ferry slip, but when the tide went out she grounded, she listed over in position that when the tide rose she with water and was finally nearly submerged. Later she was hauled on the flat near by, and the water drained from her, and it was expected that she would be all right again to-day. She suffered no particular damage from submersion.

One of the cars of a long freight train got off the rails on Front street about 6 o'clock last evening and blocked the street for a short time. The cars were delayed somewhat, but the car finally got on the rails again and out of the way. It was only five cars from the rear of the train, and it left the track the engine kept on by the engineer not knowing of the accident and in a moment the coupling was apart in some manner so that the section of the freight proceeded, leaving the rear cars.

Bradford, of this city and Mr. A. P. Webster, of Orono, have returned from a hunting trip in the Chemo Lake region. They brought back a buck.

Mr. E. L. Stearns and Mr. E. A. Greenleaf have returned from a very successful hunting trip in the Molokai region. They brought back five deer, three of which were at Fickett's market yesterday.

Double windows are being placed in position and boughs have made their appearance for sale. These are two indications that winter is coming. There are other reminders, such as the snow, chilly air, etc., which make people feel like getting ready for the cold months which are not far away.

The ladies of the Crusade ask the public who have so generously contributed to their refreshment table at former fairs, to send in the same liberal donations at City Hall, on Thursday and Friday of next week. They trust this call will meet with the same response as personal solicitation. The hall will be open at eight o'clock.

Rev. Milton B. Pratt, of Dover, will deliver his new lecture "The World's Black Shadow" for the W. C. T. U., in Greenville, Wednesday evening, November 9. This eloquent young preacher is not only filling his church but is speaking frequently in different parts of the State on live issues. He is an earnest, able speaker.

As Mr. M. C. Paine and his hired man were driving yesterday on Franklin street leading a horse behind the animal became frightened and suddenly ran to one side. The carriage was overturned and the occupants of the carriage fell under it. Fortunately neither was injured. Both horses were stopped and but very little damage was done.

WILL THEY COME FROM BURGLES?

Two Fellows Captured for Breaking and Entering at Dexter.

Bound Over for Trial at the February Term of Court.

Sheriff Reed had two additions to his family of criminals last night in the person of two burglars. They were brought to this city by Constable L. D. Edgerly, of Dexter, who arrested them at Greenville on Thursday, after a several days' chase. The fellows gave their names as W. F. and R. M. French and claim that they belong in New Orleans, their family having moved there from Boston about 1877. Their aliases are William G. and Frank F. Emerson.

Last Thursday night the store of Warren H. Carr in Dexter was burglarized, the men getting about one hundred dollars worth of guns, revolvers, etc. Before they had stolen a team of Mr. Robert Jenkins in Newport, which they conveniently forgot to return. They drove to Dexter and burglarized the store, then got an early start and went across the country to Monson. Mr. Jenkins got track of them and caught them at Monson, where they settled with him for $40.

At the time it was not known that they were the Dexter burglars, but it was noticed that they had guns and revolvers in their possession and this aroused suspicion. In order to pay Mr. Jenkins they borrowed money from Deputy Sheriff Stone of Monson, leaving guns, etc., with him as security. They then went on to Greenville where Mr. Edgerly caught them as stated, and also recovered all the goods which were stolen in Dexter. In addition to other eccentricities they "beat" their hotel bill at Dexter.

They were arraigned at Dexter yesterday before Judge Waldron, who bound them over to the February term of the supreme court in this city, in $1,000 bonds which they were unable to secure. The fellows are about 23 or 25 years of age and have evidently not been accustomed to hard work as their hands are soft and delicate. They were arrayed in somewhat of a cowboy style, having broad brimmed light hats. They will probably remain in jail until the time for their trial.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS

Eight Hundred Delegates Seen to Convene in Boston.

The indications are that the seven days' convention of the "Christians At Work," to be held in Boston November 10-16, will be a unique and important gathering. The convention consists of delegates from all evangelical denominations, any Christian being entitled to attend and take part in the discussions by sending to the secretary, Rev. John C. Collins, New Haven, Conn., for delegate's certificate. It is held in the interest of aggressive Christian effort among the "heathen at home," who are not reached by the regular work of the churches. It differs from ordinary religious assemblies, both in being undenominational and not confined to any particular sect, and the exclusion from its programme of all discussions relating to theories, creeds, doctrines or "isms."

At least ten thousand Christians are expected to attend this convention, and Boston churches are making large preparations to receive them. Full particulars concerning the privileges of delegates, reduced railroad and entertainment rates, programme and details may be obtained, without charge, by addressing the secretary, Rev. John C. Collins, New Haven, Conn.

At a meeting of the general committee in Boston this week the finance committee reported that $3,000 more was needed for expenses.

The hospitality committee reported that provisions must be made for 800 regular delegates. It was voted that the circulars be sent to the pastors of the Boston churches, asking for reports regarding the number of delegates which their respective churches can entertain.

The other committees reported a fair progress, and the general committee expressed the opinion that the convention bade fair to be the largest religious gathering ever held in Boston.

Besides the 800 delegates there will be 10,000 or 15,000 visitors to the convention. There will be 75 speakers from all over the world. Besides Tremont Temple, Park and Broomfield street churches have been engaged, and Music Hall for a portion of the time.

CORONER'S JU Y VER ICT.

Bangor Pulp and Paper Company Held Blameless

For the Explosion of Digesters at the Mill.

The coroner's inquest over the explosion of digesters at the mill of the Bangor Pulp and Paper Company, about three weeks ago, was concluded yesterday at Orono. The inquest had been adjourned three weeks in order that the testimony of Mr. Walter J. Smith, foreman of the cooking room, might be heard, his injuries at the time the inquest was first held being such that he was unable to testify at that time. The meeting was held in the selectmen's room in the Town Hall building, but before gathering there the jury went to Mr. Smith's residence and heard his testimony.

Mr. Smith testified that he was foreman in charge of the cooking room at the time of the explosion and had been employed at the mill since a year ago last August. He had carefully examined the digesters every Sunday with a lantern and had never discovered the least sign of weakness. He had tried the hammer test each time. He was present when the digesters were examined by the insurance inspectors. The pressure on the morning of the explosion was from 80 to 85 pounds—the usual pressure. He had considered the digesters perfectly safe.

The following verdict was rendered by the jury:

That Richard J. Ann and W. F. Edly came to their deaths by the explosion of digesters numbers two and three at the pulp mill operated by the Orono Pulp and Paper Company at Orono on the eleventh day of October, 1892. We find the cause of the explosion to have been the deterioration of the metal of which the digesters were composed, that the company had caused regular examinations to be made by experts and that all the testimony tended to show that the deterioration of the metal could not be discovered by ordinary methods. We find that the company used every precaution to ensure safety, and we do not find any blame attached to the company.

Mr. Smith is fast recovering from his injuries and is soon as some business local which will be in a short time he will be able to walk. Mr. Whittemore does not show any signs of improvement and his condition is not so hopeful.

The work of clearing up his burning gang bricked since the explosion and the repair on the paper will have put it into such good condition that it will be able to resume operations in a few days.

PLEASANT EVENTS

Two Social Affairs Held in City Churches Friday Evening

The first social of the First Parish Society for the season was held last evening in the vestries beneath the church on State square. A large number of the members of the parish were present, and the occasion was a most enjoyable one. During the earlier portion of the time an appetizing supper was served and the remainder of the evening was passed in a pleasing social manner by those present. The event was a success and opens the season well.

The first social of the season of the Hammond street church society occurred last evening at which there was a large attendance. A pleasant time was indulged in after which a bountiful supper was served. This was followed by a pleasing programme as follows: Piano duet Misses Pillsbury, solo, Miss Bradford reading Mrs. Reynolds solo, Miss Tyler guitar solo, Willie Littlefield, solo Miss Ladd. Each selection was heartily enjoyed and responded to. The success of this first social is very gratifying to the society.

THE ICE OUTLOOK.

The Houses will be Empty and Filled Again.

As cold weather approaches it already is in order to examine the ice outlook. Bangor dealers are confident of good results as the outlook for a prosperous ice business in Maine the coming winter seems to be good. A very little, if any, old ice will be kept over, as about all that was housed last winter has been shipped and in most instances the vacant buildings have been put in repair for refilling. A few new plants have been erected, several that were burned have been rebuilt and a number have increased their capacity. Ice men say the prospect is encouraging and consequently they will put up all the ice they have capacity for if a good article can be obtained. Maine ice firms have suffered to some extent from the competition of artificial producers, but if freights hold low they will drive their competitors to the wall another season.

There has been a good ice business in this port during the spring, summer and fall and as a result the houses are almost entirely emptied of their contents. With out regard to the conditions elsewhere there is always a steady and paying business each year and if there happens to be a scarcity in other places then it becomes a boom. There will doubtless be a large cut during the coming winter to fill the houses.

The Kennebec ice industry seems to be as prosperous, indeed more prosperous than during the days before ice making machines were invented. In reply to questions by a reporter, Mr. George N. Lawrence, one of the best informed ice men of that section, said that never since his acquaintance with the industry had he known there to be so little ice in the Kennebec houses as now, and he considered the present conditions indicate that the coming winter will see the biggest operations on the Kennebec ever known there.

TABIEUX-PHANTASMA.

Successful Concluding Presentation Friday Evening

The concluding presentation of the "Tableaux-Phantasma" at the Opera House last evening passed off very successfully and a good sized audience was present to enjoy the evening's entertainment. The programme was similar to that of the previous occasion with a number of new tableaux and all were presented in a very praiseworthy manner.

The music was also pleasing and the en-

BRETTY PRISCILLA.

Longfellow's Charming Love Story Musically Told.

The Bright Comic Opera to be Produced by Amateurs.

The next great musical event of the season will be the production, by amateur talent, of the charming comic opera "Priscilla, or the Pilgrim's Proxy," at the Opera House, Nov. 18 and 19. The opera is based on Longfellow's poem "The Courtship of Miles Standish," and is the joint production of Mr. Henry D. Coolidge, the librettist, and Mr. Thomas W. Burette, the composer. The music has received the warmest praise from the leading musical critics of New England.

The dialogue is in verse, and its humor throughout is delicious. It does not seem to have occurred to anyone until these authors revealed the fact, that the Puritan life and traditions are capable of a good natural and humorous operatic treatment. Yet when once the suggestion struck it dawned upon all what an exquisite travesty can be made of Longfellow's idyllic tale. The different lover so embarrassingly charged with the suit of another—the gruff warrior, hiding his passion under the guise of business, and the precise and eminently proper ways of the man and woman of the time, in whom however human nature asserted itself as much as it does at the present day.

The historical personages who figure in the opera are the thoughtful Miles Standish, the haughty and obdurate John Alden, the dignified William Brewster, Governor of the colony and its august demure, the little "Squint" the Indian friend of the colonist and Barbara, whose stand is essentially modern. The more truly comic workings given to historical characters—among them are the suggestion of a suspicious little god-spouter and Kate and John, agent of the Mayflower and producer of the "Ancient Pine and Antiquated Plantation Company Limited."

This delightful new combination of history, tragedy and modern Yankee enterprize will be various and making a happy but comical working scenes with it. It is a suggestion at this unusual season to give up Plymouth Rock and the old "Barnyard" most carefully selected. Miss Cotton will assume the title role. Mr. S. H. Bradman will appear as Miles Standish. Dr. B. H. Winslow as William Brewster and Charles F. Hubbard as Kate Bradford.

All are well known in musical circles. The part of Higgins will be taken by W. H. Dodd of Boston. It is full of topical songs, comic scenes and bright sayings and will furnish the broad comedy of the opera.

Mr. C. J. Little will take the part of Longfellow.

The "Little Maid"—Barbara, Faithful and dutiful—are taken by Mrs. W. A. N. Brown and Misses Frances Mason and Blanche Clayton.

Squint is the land of David Owen who is acting in previous amateur pieces in assurance of a most comical characterization of the Indian.

Such a lighted by a chorus of fifty voices is the promise of a great operatic treat.

An orchestra and select orchestra will be one of the features. It will be under the direction of F. E. Blacomb of Boston and include the Orpheus Club and other excellent instrumental talent.

The costumes by Raymond of Boston and scenery by Story, and wigs and makeups by Eddie. Tickets will be on sale Tuesday, Nov. 18th. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the King's Daughters' Home.

The chorus will be composed of the following:

Soprano and contraltos: June Stevens, Grace A. Curtis, Maude Swadlow, Mabel Garland, Carrie Woodward, Ada Bryant, Grace Gordon, May Hill, Frances Stearns, May Ayer, May Sample, Blanche Elliott, Annie I. Garland, Ada Littlefield, Mrs. Edward Adams, Misses Nan Goodenow, Louise Littlefield, Maude Belier, Sadie Moore, Lillian Barker, Alice Pearl, Faustina Curtis.

Tenors and basses: Messrs. Bert Barker, Percy Hubbard, Haven Sawyer, Alex. McBarry, Gus Sample, Herbert Sellers, Chas. Clayton, Edward Woodbury, Sidney Wainwright, Harry Donnelly, Walter Goodrow, George Wescott, Harry Fox, Irving Hutchinson, Chas. Elkins, Frank Huthinson, Frank Goodenow, Chas. Sample, Chas. Whitman, Harry Little, John Park, Willard Barrows.

Increasing Business

Today at the Woman's Exchange in Market Street on Market Street there will be a special display and stock of food rolls, doughnuts, cakes, wafers, fried apples, cookies, home made candy etc. on the large and fine stock of delicious things will doubtless quickly disappear. The results accomplished by the Exchange have been much greater than was anticipated at the start and there is a continued increase showing that it is greatly appreciated. It gives employment to many who are able to cook well and on the other hand proves a great convenience to those who desire to obtain delectable food by merely paying a moderate price for it. It is a fine institution.
